

CSI's Pluralism and Diversity Program

presents:

CSI Students Heritage Speakers Series Fall 2009

Telling Our Stories

The Series provides an opportunity for faculty, staff, and students to share with the audience their cultural and ethnic heritage through stories, insights, photos, etc. If you wish to participate or need more information, please contact the Pluralism and Diversity Program.

Thursday, September 3 2:00pm-3:00pm
Center for the Arts-Conference Room (1P-116)
Tiffany Pham, CSI student majoring in Early Childhood Education
Heritage Speakers Series: Vietnam

Thursday, September 24 2:00pm-3:00pm
Center for the Arts-Conference Room (1P-116)
Liliana Cruz Lopez, CSI student majoring in Mathematics
Heritage Speakers Series: Mexico

Wednesday, October 7 2:30pm-3:30pm
Center for the Arts-Conference Room (1P-116)
Sherill Abraham, CSI student majoring in History
Heritage Speakers Series: India

Wednesday, October 28 2:30pm-3:30pm
Center for the Arts-Conference Room (1P-116)
Noor Daoud, CSI student majoring in Information Systems and Philosophy/Political Science
Heritage Speakers Series: Jordan and Palestine

Pluralism and Diversity Program, Building 2A, Room 208
College of Staten Island/CUNY, email: pluralism@mail.csi.cuny.edu, Tel: 718.982.2597
www.csi.cuny.edu/pluralismanddiversity

All PG CLUE Events