FACULTY VACANCY ANNOUNCEMENT

The School of Health Science’s Department of Nursing, at the College of Staten Island (CSI), currently seeks candidates for a tenure track position in Nursing at the rank of Assistant, Associate or Full Professor. This position is anticipated to begin in September 2016. The Department offers AAS, RN to BS, MS (CNS, NP, and Certificates), and DNP (2016) degree programs. This position offers an exceptional opportunity to participate in the continued intellectual and institutional growth and development of the long-standing Nursing Department within the City University of New York. For further information on the Department of Nursing at CSI we encourage you to visit our website: http://www.csi.cuny.edu/nursing.

The College of Staten Island (CSI) is a City University of New York (CUNY) senior College organized around two academic divisions and three schools, with over 14,000 students. CSI offers a broad range of academic programs in the liberal arts and sciences, and in several professional areas. The College awards associate’s, bachelor’s, master’s and clinical doctoral degrees, and in collaboration with The CUNY Graduate Center, numerous PhD degrees. CSI’s internationally recognized faculty passionately engage in scholarly and artistic activities, and together with a strong professional staff, lead students through transformational learning experiences both inside and outside of the classroom. The College is situated on a 204-acre site, has recently incorporated a residential component, and is currently engaging in capital expansion. It is a hub of intellectual and artistic activity and a community partner and source of economic impact and job creation for the greater Staten Island area.

The College’s faculty, administration, and staff are committed to educational excellence as they instill in students an enduring love of learning and respect for pluralism and diversity. The College community recognizes its responsibility to strive for the common good, including an informed appreciation for the interdependence of all people, as well as providing students with the opportunities for successful future careers.

QUALIFICATIONS

The successful candidate will have a PhD or EdD, leadership experience in nursing higher education, and the required eligibility criteria for tenure. Applicants must have or be eligible for a New York State RN license and demonstrate a commitment to teaching, a record of scholarship (including peer-reviewed publications), and service. The successful candidate will be committed to inclusive excellence, have strong communication skills, mentoring experience, and the capacity to lead a department with professional programs. Applicants with Associate or Full Professor credentials are highly desired and evidence of funding is preferred.

The Search Committee is especially interested in candidates who can contribute, through their research, teaching and/or service, to the diversity of the academic community. Applicants from traditionally underrepresented populations are strongly encouraged to apply.
