

Community Service & Civic Engagement

Organization	Description
American Cancer Society	Volunteer -Clerical work -Flexible schedule
American Red Cross of Greater NY	Volunteer -To do community programs -To do office work (lobbying, funding)
Arthur Kill Correctional Facility	Volunteer
Association of Neighborhood Housing and Development	Volunteer -Limited work available
Brookdale University Hospital and Medical Center	Volunteer -Must be able to contribute 4 hours 1 day a week for a minimum of 3 months, either days, evenings, or weekends are available. (training provided) -Light clerical work -Record keeping -Patient Liaison -Friendly visiting -Recreational activities -Storybook reading -Book cart
Catholic Charities (Senior Center)	Volunteer -Teaching seniors basic computer skills.
Children At Play	Volunteer -Helping special education children age birth – 5 years -Open 8:30 am to 4 pm
Children's Aid Society	Volunteer -Has volunteer work during semester -Paid positions during the summer
Downtown Staten Island Council	Various Administrative Opportunities
Garden in Transit	Volunteer -Attend painting sessions with kids in schools or hospitals -set up, running the session, and cleaning up -weekdays and weekends
Garibaldi Museum	Volunteer -Weekend tour guides -1 pm to 5 pm Saturday and Sunday
Jewish Association for Services for the Aged	Volunteer -Computers -Artwork -Decorations -Announcements -Talking with elderly -Dancing

Junior Achievement New York	Volunteer -Time commitment- 1hr a week for 5 weeks (training provided) -Teaching interactive lessons to students in elementary school
Lutheran Healthcare	Volunteer -Bi-lingual Chinese speaking volunteers for interpretations and patient assistance.
Memorial Sloan Kettering Cancer Center	Volunteer -Once a week commitment 3-4hrs -Interview process -Patient interaction -Companionship
Mount Sinai	Volunteer -Variety of positions available
MS Society (National) - Volunteer Services	Volunteer -MS walk April 21, 2007 -Rest stop volunteers -Finish line volunteers -Registration -Set up (day before the walk)
National Park Service: Department of Recreation	Volunteer -Recreational activities
National Park Service: Dept of Natural Resources, Great Kills	Volunteer -Opportunities in natural resources
National Park Service: Department of History	Volunteer -History opportunities
NYU Medical Center - Volunteer Services	Volunteer -Based on interests -Different types of commitments -Application process
New York Methodist Hospital's Family Caregiver Program	Volunteer -Visit with families and provide emotional support and resource information.
Project Hospitality	-Various
Reach out and Read of Greater NYC	-Volunteer Reading to children in clinics. -Interns -Benefit Volunteering
St. Mary's Hospital for Children	Volunteer -Must be 25 or older -Interaction with children -Reading/Playing games

Staten Island University Hospital	100 Hour Commitment p/year Labs must be pulled 2 letters of recommendation Background check Physical Orientation
Sunrise Assisted Living	Volunteer -Activities -Kitchen Internship -Most beneficial for Psych or Soc majors but open to all areas -Very flexible
Volunteers of America	Volunteer -Volunteer assistant -Filing, making copies, sending out mail, faxing, making labels -Minimum 3 hours a day, Mon., Wed., Fri.
WHY – World Hunger Year, Inc.	Volunteer -Volunteer will be trained to respond to calls received on the National Hunger Hotline. The volunteer will assess the needs of the caller in order to provide information and referrals to emergency food programs, government programs, and other social services. -Responsible for documenting calls in WHY database.