Accept awards you want, and decline awards you don’t want

Click on 2015 next to College of Staten Island to view a summary of your awards for 2014-2015 at CSI

Click on 2015 next to College of Staten Island to view a summary of your awards for 2014-2015 at CSI

- You may see aid for more than one academic year
- You may see aid for more than one school

If you have a Federal Work-Study (FWS) award, you must accept or decline it. You have to work to earn the award.

If you have a Perkins Loan award, you must accept or decline it. It is a loan; it must be repaid, if accepted.

CUNY presumes you have accepted any other award offered to you.
Review your entire awards package.

- Awards other than FWS or Perkins Loan (PELL, TAP etc.) are presumed accepted and require no further action. If you wish to decline any of them, see the Financial Aid Office.

If you have a FWS award or a Federal Perkins Loan

- Check the box under “Accept,” if you want the award.
- Check the box under “Decline,” if you do not want the award.
- If you do nothing, you will lose the FWS or Perkins award.

Click on any of the award hyperlinks for more detailed information about the program and its requirements. Below is an example of the Federal Work Study detail screen.

After you review your aid package and, if applicable, Accept or Decline your FWS or Perkins Loan award, click SUBMIT.