Summer 2016

DIS—Danish Institute for Study Abroad, founded in 1959, has 50 years of experience in offering high quality study abroad programming in Copenhagen, taught in English for upper division U.S. undergraduate students. DIS is a non-profit educational foundation governed by an external board of directors. It is tuition driven, but receives a subsidy from the Danish government.

Eligibility Requirements:
Juniors and Seniors with a 3.0 GPA on a 4.0 scale. For Architecture & Design program, students must be enrolled at a professional school or department of architecture or design.

Dates:
Session I (3 weeks) May 24—June 11, 2016
Session II (3 weeks) June 13—July 2, 2016
Session III (4 weeks) July 4—July 30, 2016
Architecture & Design (7 weeks) June 13-July 30, 2016

Housing:
Program participants may choose between 1) living with other DIS students in a DIS Residential Community and 2) sharing a European-type student residence hall (Kollegium) with Danish or other international students from various universities and colleges. For more information about housing, visit www.disabroad.org/study-abroad-summer/accommodation/.

Program Cost:
Session I (3 credits) $4,490
Session II (3 credits) $5,640
Session III (4 credits) $6,480
Architecture & Design (7 credits) $10,070
Furniture Design (9 credits) $11,240

Discounts available for signing up for more than one session. Please inquire.

Basic Program Cost Includes: Instructional cost abroad, housing and partial meal, DIS Student Affairs Fee, textbook and photo copies, field study events, study tours, personal e-mail account and internet access, compensation for local commuting, and administrative fees, orientation, sickness and accident insurance.

Estimated Additional Costs:
Airfare: $1,000-1,500
Other Meals: $100 per week
Personal Expenses $100 per week
Optional DIScovery Trips (Session I only) TBA

Note: All dates and costs are subject to change.

Application Deadlines:
All Summer Programs March 1
Academics:
DIS offers 3-week 3-credit and 4-week 4-credit courses within a variety of academic fields. Students can choose to enroll in one course for 3-4 credits in each session. In Session I, the courses run for 3 weeks in Copenhagen. In Session II and III, the courses include a 5-day study tour in Europe.

The Architecture & Design Program offers seven unique summer design programs to explore the essential nature of world-renowned Danish architecture and design. Architecture, Architecture Foundations, Graphic Design, Graphic Design Foundations, Interior Architecture, and Urban Design programs offer 7 credits: 6-credit studio course including study tour and 1-credit Visual Journal course. Furniture Design in Scandinavia offers 9 credits: 6-credit studio including study tour and 3-credit lecture course.

For the updated summer course list and course descriptions, visit www.disabroad.org/copenhagen/summer/.

Session I (3 weeks, 3 credits)
- Business Start-up in Scandinavia
- Children with Special Needs
- Climate Change: Past and Present
- Corporate Social Responsibility: Business or Ethics?
- Danish Greenspace
- Design and Society in Denmark
- Enemy Within, The: Spies, Espionage, and the Cold War
- Health Delivery and Prioritization in Northern Europe
- Human Health and Disease: A Clinical Approach
- Human Trafficking in a Global Context
- Meaning of Style, The
- Nordic Art in the Studio
- Positive Psychology
- Psychology of Criminal Behavior
- Psychology of Human Sexuality
- Social Brain, The: The Neuropsychology of Social Behaviors
- Sports Medicine: Performance and Fatigue
- Stolen Childhoods: Immigrant and Refugee Children in Europe
- Strategies for Urban Livability

Session II (3 weeks, 3 credits)
- Business Start-up in Scandinavia
- Children in a Multicultural Context
- Climate Change and Glacier Modeling
- Cognitive Neuroscience of Fear: From Animal to Human Models
- Cross-Cultural Psychology
- Emerging Markets
- European Clinical Psychology
- Food and Identity
- Gender and Sexuality in Scandinavia
- Health Delivery and Prioritization in Northern Europe
- Human Health and Disease: A Clinical Approach
- Medical Biotechnology and Drug Development
- Positive Psychology
- Prostitution and The Sex Trade
- Renewable Energy Systems
- Roskilde Festival: Community, Culture, and Creativity*
  (*Note: Course runs to July 4 due to festival dates)
- Terrorism and Counter-Terrorism from a European Perspective

Session III (4 weeks, 4 credits)
- Bicycle Urbanism
- Child Development: Theory and Practice
- European Genocides
- Hamlet: Prince of Denmark
- Public Health in Arctic
- Windmills Constructed: Energy in Scandinavia
- World of Vikings, The: Facts, Fiction, and Fantasy

Study in Denmark at DIS—Danish Institute for Study Abroad for a summer or semester program.
For more information visit: www.ccisabroad.org

To apply, visit the Center for International Service’s website for application instructions: www.csi.cuny.edu/international

Questions?
Contact the Center for International Service at the College of Staten Island at 718-982-2100 or Russell.Davis@csi.cuny.edu