Winter 2016
January 2-23, 2016
3 or 4 credits

Lorenzo de' Medici – The Italian International Institute in Florence, enrolls students from all over the world. The main building on Via Faenza dates back to the 13th century and was originally a convent connected to a medieval church. All of the facilities, including independent administrative offices, classroom buildings, and art studios, are located on several premises in the city’s historical center in the San Lorenzo area. Florence is a living museum with works by famous painters, sculptors and architects everywhere.
