Winter Intersession 2016

Spanish language & Service-Learning in Seville, Spain

SPN 319: Introduction to Translation, 4 credits January 2-23, 2016
With Dr. Francisco Salgado-Robles
Dept. of World Languages & Literature, CSI

Understand how the Spanish culture is manifest in the Spanish language through Service-Learning. Open to sophomores, juniors, and seniors. The course is taught in Spanish, so at least intermediate fluency is required. Final approval given by lead faculty member.

ACADEMIC PROGRAM & CULTURAL ACTIVITIES

- Academic investigation and service work in the community; possible locations include: Senior citizen housing, child daycare center, library, and language academy.
- Study trips to Gibraltar, Tarifa, Granada and Córdoba
- Cultural activities include a flamenco show and visits to local sites such as the Royal Palace, Fine Arts Museum, and the Cathedral.

HOUSING AND MEALS
Participants will be accommodated in Spanish homestays. Room & board includes double room, three meals per day and laundry service.

BASIC PROGRAM TUITION:
4 credits (based on in-state CUNY tuition rate) $1,100
AIRFARE (estimate): $950

PROGRAM COST: $2,855

Program Cost Includes:
- Orientations in the US and Spain
- Ground transportation
- Housing with a Spanish family—full Room & Board
- Program related activities including out-of-town study trips
- Sickness and accident insurance

Dates and Costs are subject to change.

APPLICATION DEADLINE: October 15

CONTACT INFORMATION

Program Director:
Dr. Francisco Salgado-Robles
Dept. of World Languages and Literature
Building 2S, Rm 104
Francisco.Salgado@csi.cuny.edu or (718) 982-3705

Study Abroad Advisor:
Russell Davis
Center for International Service, 2A-206
Russell.Davis@csi.cuny.edu or (718) 982-2100