These are the stories of the Medieval and Renaissance men and women whom I have read about and marveled at over a lifetime. They are the kinds of people who stay with me in memory. They lived and did so with such impact. They never really died. They all had a knack for longevity, and I'd like to tell you why.
Happiness is our birthright. Observe young children and see how easily joy comes to them. They approach life with an open heart, free to love without placing conditions on the object of their love. The Pursuit of Happiness is more than a class. It is journey back to ourselves. You will see how things like judgementalism, and perfectionism interfere with our happiness, and how choice, unconditional love, gratitude, and compassion put us on the road back to happiness. The course includes guided meditations and other experiential elements in which the participants will develop “happiness skills.”

This course will explore excerpts from literature across multiple genres. We will bring our perspectives and lived experience to each discussion to deepen our understanding of that genre, and to make the text more meaningful to each person.

As an added bonus, students will also be encouraged to select a word or two from the genres in class so the instructor and students can further unpack its origins, meaning, and significance.

How beer, wine, alcohol, coffee, tea, and Coca Cola changed the world and how coffee impacted the Declaration of Independence.

OPTION 16  Hebrew Bible III
John Petersen

For the last few generations in our country, Biblical scholars from the mainline religious traditions have reached a consensus that the Hebrew Bible is a masterpiece of editing. There is at the same time general agreement concerning the motives that the editors had. They find themselves in a changing worldview, which makes them both creator and product of changing cultural influences.

This course will explore commonly accepted ‘ways of life’ in the Hebrew tradition, which are greatly determined by the belief that the Hebrew Bible enjoys a Divine source, and stands within this newly acquired interpretive framework.

Music Part 1: Understanding the Music of the Beatles

“Mr. Lou” Russo

Thursdays – Virtual Class
12:20pm – 1:15pm
7 Sessions

Understanding the music of the Beatles is to be all inclusive. This is the case for musicians, who play the Beatles on guitar, piano, drum, bass, horns, and for song writers who compose, melody construction. This class is for both beginners and pros, as well as those who are just interested in learning about their tremendous influence on popular culture, and the world of music. I will analyze the influence of the Beatles and explain their self-taught theory (which even they could not explain). We will also review their choices, and the sounds of their instruments, singing styles (lead and harmonic), their innovating rhythm styles, and their recording techniques. I will answer questions and give inside information and back stories that most musicologists do not know.
