The Good, the Bad, and the Ugly
Peter Whitehouse
Mondays
In Person – Room TBD
11:15am – 12:45pm
4 sessions
2/26, 3/4, 3/11, 3/18

In these classes we won’t be looking at the characters from Sergio Leone’s 1966 movie played by Eastwood, Wallach and Van Cleef. We will be searching for real people from history who fit these three categories.

Can it be done? Has anyone ever been truly good? And what does one have to do to cross the line from annoyingly disreputable to being bad, but not so far as evil? Or does bad include evil? And what can the definition of ugly possibly be - the way one looks, acts?

We know going in that treading the path of these lectures may be a fool’s errand. No person is ever all one thing.

Let the quest begin then. We may examine the lives of such candidates as Pope Alexander VI (Borgia), Mother Theresa, Rasputin, Pope Pius XII, Bloody Mary, Genghis Khan, Elizabeth I, Elisabetta Gonzaga, Ivan the Terrible, and Lucrezia Borgia.

The Assassination of Abraham Lincoln
Leonard Warner

Tuesdays - Virtual
8:30am – 12:00pm
(There will be a 15-minute break)

2 Sessions
5/7, 5/14

A study of the events in 1865, at the end of the Civil War, that led to the assassination of Abraham Lincoln and its aftermath. We will meet John Wilkes Booth and his band of co-conspirators, and what they thought they would accomplish by the murder of the president and part of his cabinet. We will follow the funeral train as it brought Lincoln and his deceased son Willy home to Springfield, IL for burial.

We will also discuss the effect that Lincoln's assassination had on American history. Excellent videos from the series "American Experience", "American Heritage", and others will be used as well as a PowerPoint presentation and a personal booklet that I wrote for the course.

Bad Boys of Italian Art

Snjezana Smolakla

Both Caravaggio (1571-1610) and Benvenuto Cellini (1500-1571) were of violent nature, irascible, provocative, often jailed as criminals, fugitives, and even murderers. Yet, Caravaggio created religious art of sublime beauty; and Cellini exquisite golden miniatures and marble sculptures. Giuseppe Arcimboldo (1527-1593), a painter who did not paint fruit, flowers, vegetables or fish, created imaginative portraits with the two of them.

Understanding the Music of the Beatles

Instructor Bios

Clarissa Alliano is the NY Metro Area Manager for Veterans Yoga Project. She has been instructing Yoga, Meditation and Yoga Nidra in NY, NJ & CA for 25 years since her Integral Yoga Institute certification in 1998.

David Frankel has a BFA in Broadcasting and a Master's in Education, Supervision and Administration. He has worked in Broadcasting and taught for 45 years.

Dianne Frankel was taught how to knit fifty-plus years ago by her great aunt, and ever since then she has loved the craft. After retiring from NYC Department of Education, she enrolled at the Fashion Institute of Technology, Yarn Council, Knitting Instructor Class. She has taught adults and Girl Scout groups how to knit.

Dr. Joan Hartman is a retired faculty member of the Department of English at CSI with a specialty in British literature of the Early Modern Period, also referred to as the Renaissance. She has been teaching one Shakespearean play a semester in Options each year over the last decade.

Harold Hellman has a master's degree in Social Work, and has worked in mental health and long-term care for 30 years. Through years of meditation and spiritual practice, he had found that happiness is the key to a peaceful and fulfilling life. Happiness takes work, but what glorious work it is.

Meaghan Hilton has always loved crafting. She took a knitting class with her mother years ago, but also wanted to learn crochet. During the pandemic she finally taught herself to crochet and never looked back. She loves sharing crochet ideas with others, and the community that it creates.

Mitchell Lehrer is a pop and rock music enthusiast, who has been teaching courses in rock music for several years. His desire to teach comes from the enjoyment he receives when sharing his knowledge of not-so-popular songs and "hidden gems" from popular groups and artists.
Blerina Likollari earned her master's degree in TESOL at Hunter College and has enjoyed teaching adult learners for more than 15 years. Before her current role as CSI’s Associate Director of the Literacy and Language Programs, she was a faculty member at the World Languages and Literature Department. During her 13 years with the department, she taught beginner to advanced Italian language courses, which included teaching the fundamentals of expression and communication to students who had little to no prior knowledge of language.

Allan Meyers is a Korean War Veteran. After the war he became a lawyer and started his own family practice. In retirement he enrolled in Options as a student. It was at that time that the Options Program Coordinator, Betty, asked him to teach a class about the Brooklyn Dodgers. He has been teaching two courses each semester since then.

Stephanie Parello began an obsessive study of Chen-style Tai Chi, Kung Fu, and fitness in general, as well as therapeutic massage, when she turned her life upside-down by relocating to Sydney, Australia. Her most prominent super power is being a natural-born teacher, with decades of experience, and an almost magical ability to meet people exactly where they are.

Doriann Pieve-Hyland serves as CSI’s Director of Technology Operations, Training, and Development. She has over 25 years of experience in higher education management, teaching, and technology services. Doriann holds HDI, ITIL, and Microsoft Office Specialist Certifications, as well as a master's degree in Integrated Technology and Online Learning in Higher Education. She is passionate about learning and teaching, and tries to ensure that her students enjoy the learning process too.

Laurie Raps started playing Mah Jong as a child while watching her mother and her friends playing every week. She joined a game as a young adult and has been playing ever since. Besides loving the game, she especially loves the friendships she has made.

John Rossi is a retired professor of over 30 years from the prestigious New York University, and is an aficionado of world history. Professor Rossi’s interest was ignited on his first cruise to Alaska. Since then, he has delivered enriching lectures about the history and events of many countries around the world. He has been invited by numerous cruise lines including Celebrity, Royal Caribbean, Princess, and Holland America to entertain and educate passengers on more than 120 cruises. In addition to Options, he currently conducts lectures at the Somerset Library, Westfield Historic Society, Dept. of the Aging, MS Society, and the UFT.
Louis Russo is a professional guitarist, singer & songwriter, as well as an experienced designer, illustrator and fine artist with a long career servicing top clients and corporations in NYC.

Augustus Sarr is from West Africa. He is a graduate from St. Mary's University Halifax, Canada (International Development studies/Economics). He also served as a Teacher’s Assistant in the Department of Social Science at the University of The Gambia. Augustus is a strong believer of Pan-Africanism and that unity among African countries is vital to economic, social and political progress.

Donna Scimeca is a full-time administrator in the Office of the Dean of Humanities & Social Sciences. She is also an adjunct lecturer, and Coordinator of Core 100, a US civics course at the College. She began developing her Iyengar yoga (Hatha) practice in 2000, and has been teaching yoga since 2007. She teaches classes in person at the College, and virtually via Zoom.

Dr. Snjezana Smodlaka was born in Croatia. A Fulbright scholar in 1981, she holds a B.A., M.A. and Ph.D. in Italian language and literature. She published numerous professional articles and presented more than forty papers on international congresses in USA, Italy, Austria, Germany, Spain, Canada, and Croatia. She is particularly committed to bringing back Italian Renaissance and Baroque women artists from centuries old oblivion.

Dr. Darlene Timbreza is a Doctor of Physical Therapy with 28 years of clinical experience, and is a certified instructor from the American Heart Association. She considers teaching to be both a privilege and a sacred vocation.

Leonard Warner grew up with a love of nature and evolution. As an educator and Biology major, he taught in the Sciences and Humanities at John Dewey High School for over 30 years, and after retirement in 2000 at the UFT SI Beagle Learning Center, Blue Heron Park Nature Center, and CSI Options. His cumulative teaching experience spans over 57 years. In his retirement, he has focused on American History, such as the American Revolution, the lives of the Founding Fathers and early Presidents, Abraham Lincoln, and the Civil War. He loves to teach, learn, interact with people, and share his knowledge with anyone who enjoys learning.
Peter Whitehouse has taught in the Options program for over a decade. Before that he was the Advanced Placement European History instructor at Tottenville High School. His previous subject course areas for Options have ranged from European philosophy, art, architecture, religion, and literature, with emphasis on the Medieval and Renaissance periods. He has also conducted several museum art tours for students at the NYC Met and the Cloisters, as well as educational trips abroad.

Thomas Wortmann is a CSI alum and has been an amateur photographer for years, having won a number of photo contests during that time. Tom has also been an Options instructor for over 10 years, and is a firm believer that the purpose of having knowledge is sharing it.
