Academic Resources toward Your Steps to Success

Center for Advising and Academic Success (CAAS)

Building 1A, Room 101    Phone: 718.982.2280
Email: advisement@csi.cuny.edu

October is Early Advising Month for Spring registration. Registration begins in November.
March is Early Advising Month for Fall registration. Registration begins in April.

Academic Advisement provides advisement support to new students, matriculated continuing students in most majors who have earned less than 45 college-level credits, to students who are declared in an associate degree liberal art program (AA or AS), and to those students affiliated with the Adult Learner Program.

Additionally, CAAS assists students with educational goal planning, major and career identification, general education requirements, DegreeWorks (the degree audit self-advisement tool), TAP eligibility and academic policies.

Evening and weekend academic advisement hours are available.

Counseling Center

Building 1A, Room 109     Phone: 718.982.2391
Email: counseling@csi.cuny.edu

The Counseling Center provides individual and group counseling for students of the College of Staten Island. All counseling services are free and confidential. At CSI, counseling usually addresses one or more of the following: personal issues, crisis situations, and academic performance.

Crisis Counseling: is designed to help students who are experiencing immediate and extreme distress.

Group Counseling: bring together a number of students sharing a common concern to provide an opportunity for support, skill building, and personal growth.

Individual personal counseling: is designed to help you address your concerns, come to a greater understanding of yourself, and develop effective strategies for dealing with life's challenges.

Academic Counseling: helps students achieve their fullest academic potential through assessment and individual counseling. Students may experience academic difficulties for a variety of reasons including: •Adjustment to college •Attention and learning issues •Concentration •Issues with study skills •Motivation/Goal setting •Personal stressors •Test anxiety •Time management/Procrastination •Unrealistic expectations

If you have any FIN/WU/WN grades on your College of Staten Island transcript, The Counseling Center may be able to assist with grade appeals.

To make an appointment please call 718-982-2391 or drop-in to 1A-109. Students can also be seen on a walk-in basis. Fall and Spring Semesters: Monday-Friday: 9:00am-5:00pm and Wednesday and Thursday night until 7:00pm
