The Leadership in Education certificate program is designed to prepare qualified candidates for leadership positions in New York State schools, with an emphasis on effective leadership in urban schools. Upon successful completion of the program, students will have met the statutory requirements of the New York State Department of Education for certification as School Building Leader and School District Leader. All students move through the course of studies with a cohort.

DEGREE REQUIREMENTS

School Building Leader / School District Leader (SBL/SDL Dual Certificate) Track:
The program requires 30 credits of approved coursework within a cohort model including: 24 credits in supervision, administration, curriculum, policy analysis, human relations; theory, research, and practice in educational leadership; six credits in a field experience seminar. The program leads to both SBL and SDL certificates—upon program completion and passage of New York State required Leadership Assessments.

APPLICATION PROCEDURES
Graduate Application:
The application must be completed online at www.csi.cuny.edu/graduatestudies.

Transcripts:
Applicants must request official transcripts from all post-secondary institutions attended. If you are currently enrolled in a post-secondary institution, have one transcript sent now and another sent when you complete the courses that you are taking. Applicants who have been enrolled at CSI do not need to request a CSI transcript; the Office of Recruitment and Admissions will obtain a copy.

Application Fee:
A $125.00 non-refundable application fee is required of all applicants. Please make your check or money order payable to the College of Staten Island.

Letter of Intent:
Submit a two-to three-page essay explaining why you wish to prepare yourself for a leadership role in education. Also discuss some of your principle beliefs in education, role of an educational leader and any experiences you had in bringing about improvements in your school or professional setting. The letter of intent is required for the SBL/SDL track.

Supervisor's Questionnaire:
Applicants are required to submit a supervisor's questionnaire. Access the Leadership in Education – Supervisor Questionnaire at www.csi.cuny.edu/graduatestudies.

Letters of Recommendation:
Three professional letters of recommendation

Interview:
An interview with faculty of the program and district partners.

Graduate Record Examination (GRE):
The GRE - General Aptitude Test is mandated by New York State for all graduate teacher education and school building leader programs, including initial certification, professional certification, and advanced certificate programs. For additional information or to register for the exam, please visit www.gre.org. Our institutional code for the GRE is 2778.

Applicants may be granted credit for prior coursework completed at CSI or another college or university based on the determination by program faculty.
