Transfer applicants are students who have attended any college, university, and/or proprietary school since graduating from high school or secondary school. This applies whether or not the applicant is seeking transfer credit and/or changing program of study. For more information on how to apply, please visit the CUNY website.

For admission purposes, you are considered an international student if you are currently in an F-1 or J-1 non-immigrant status, will need to change your status to F-1 or J-1, or will need an F-1 or J-1 visa in order to study at CSI.

Submit a Transfer application on the CUNY Application page and pay a non-refundable application fee of $70.

Submit educational documents.
- Official transcripts from colleges, universities and/or proprietary schools in the U.S. if attended
- Official post-secondary/university records from all post-secondary institutions overseas
- Photocopies of diplomas and certificates

Transfer students with less than 30 credits completed at the time of application (one year of post-secondary-level work) must submit their secondary school documents as part of the application process.

☐ Submit a photocopy of certified translation of all transcripts, diplomas and certificates if they are not in English.

Please see the CUNY Document Translation Guidelines.

Submit a proof of English language proficiency if you are not a native speaker of English. (Our institutional code is 2778). Please email international@csi.cuny.edu to confirm that you need to submit TOEFL, IELTS or PTE.
