CSI EXCHANGE AMBASSADOR PROGRAMS

The CSI Exchange Ambassador Programs aim to provide CSI students with valuable knowledge and skills while enabling them to experience life in a foreign educational environment. In addition, the exchange students will serve as “CSI Student Ambassadors,” gaining a global perspective that will help them to achieve career goals in an increasingly interdependent world. Exchange Ambassadors require a minimum GPA of 2.75 and must complete an interview with the Center as part of the application process. All CSI Exchange Ambassador programs are semester long, and students pay standard CUNY tuition.

Australia – University of Canberra (business majors pref.)
France – IPAG (business majors only)
Hong Kong – City University of Hong Kong

Application deadlines: Spring – October 1st
Fall – March 1st

CSI FACULTY-LED PROGRAMS

CSI offers short term faculty-led programs during the winter intersession, spring break, and summer. These programs, ranging from one week to one month, allow students to complete a course abroad with a CSI faculty member. Offerings are updated regularly, so please follow the link above to see the latest opportunities. Past faculty-led offerings have included a Service Learning and Spanish course in Seville, Spain, Biology Field course in St. John, US Virgin Islands, a Business Management course in Dublin, Ireland, Geological Field courses in Southern Italy and Scotland, and a Transcultural Nursing and Global Health course in San Jose, Costa Rica.
