

Pre-Law Pipeline Programs for CUNY undergraduates, particularly freshmen, sophomores and juniors:

- American Bar Association (ABA) Summer Research Diversity Fellowships in Law and Social Science for Undergraduate Students
<http://www.americanbarfoundation.org/research/Fellowshipopportunities/SummerResearchDiversityFellowshipsinLawandSocialScience.html> - Expected deadline: February 15, 2013
- IIT Chicago-Kent, Illinois Institute of Technology, Pre-Law Undergraduate Scholars Program (PLUS) - <http://www.kentlaw.iit.edu/academics/pre-law-undergraduate-scholars-program> - Expected deadline: April 1, 2013
- Cornell University Prelaw Program in New York City - Summer Session 2013 - June to July 2013 - <http://www.sce.cornell.edu/ss/programs.php?v=PRELAW&s=Overview> - Expected deadline: Applications accepted on a rolling basis up until summer 2013
- Florida State University College of Law's Summer for Undergraduates Program - http://www.law.fsu.edu/summer_undergraduates/index.html - Actual deadline: Friday, March 29, 2013
- Georgia State University College of Law - Pre-Law Undergraduate Scholars Program (PLUS) - <http://law.gsu.edu/careers/5995.html> - Expected deadline - April 11, 2013
- Ohio Northern University Claude W. Pettit College of Law - http://law.onu.edu/admissions/prospective_students/plus_program/plus_application - Expected deadline - April 2013
- Ohio State University Moritz College of Law/University of Oxford Summer Prelaw Program for sophomores, juniors and seniors - <http://moritzlaw.osu.edu/programs/oxford/prelaw> - Expected deadline: February 1, 2013
- Skadden, Arps Honors Program in Legal Studies - (for CCNY students or students who will be transferring to CCNY including CUNY community college students) - <http://www1.ccny.cuny.edu/prospective/socialsci/skadden>

The Skadden, Arps Honors Program in Legal Studies is a unique partnership between Skadden, Arps, Slate, Meagher & Flom LLP, one of the preeminent law firms in the world, and The City College of New York. The purpose of the program is to prepare students from low-income and underrepresented groups for successful legal careers and to enrich and diversify the legal profession.

- TRIALS - Training and Recruitment Initiative for Admission to Leading Law Schools, is a partnership of NYU School of Law, Harvard Law School, and the Advantage Testing Foundation - <http://trials.atfoundation.org> - TRIALS is a residential scholarship program that helps talented and motivated college students of modest means gain admission to the nation's leading law schools. This rigorous five-week summer course enhances opportunities for students of limited economic means and underrepresented backgrounds by bolstering their skills and focusing their goals. TRIALS is a full scholarship program. Students are not responsible for any tuition, fees, or related expenses. In addition to the academic curriculum of the program, every TRIALS student will receive: (1) transportation to and from the host university campus; (2) campus housing for the duration of the five-week program; (3) three daily meals at the campus dining hall; (4) access to the host university's library, computer centers, and gym. Each TRIALS student also receives a $3,000 stipend to replace or supplement summer employment income. Students are encouraged to allocate a significant percentage of their stipends for school-year expenses such as tuition, housing, books, and other supplies. TRIALS is designed to ensure that no student will face a financial obstacle to participation. - Expected deadline: January 2013

- University of Arkansas at Little Rock - Pre-Law Undergraduate Scholars Program (PLUS) - <http://www.law.ualr.edu/admissions/plus> - Expected deadline: April 1, 2013
- University of Baltimore School of Law - The Charles Hamilton Houston Scholarship Program (CHHSP) - <http://law.ubalt.edu/template.cfm?page=1443>
-
CCHHSP prepares undergraduate students for law school. CCHHSP is a Pre-Law Undergraduate Scholars Program (PLUS) sponsored by the Law School Admissions Council.
Expected deadline: March 2013
- University of California Davis School of Law: King Hall Outreach Program - <http://www.law.ucdavis.edu/prospective/outreach/KHOP.html> - Expected deadline: April 2013
- University of Iowa College of Law - Phillip G. Hubbard Law School Preparation Program - <http://www.law.uiowa.edu/prospective/pre-law/hubbard.php>
Expected deadline - April 1, 2013
- University of New Mexico School of Law - <http://lawschool.unm.edu/native-plus/apply.php> -
Expected deadline - April 15, 2013
(Please note that the University of New Mexico School of Law Pre-Law Program is for Native American students and requires proof of membership in a federally-recognized American Indian nation/tribe or Alaska Native village)
- The University of Missouri Kansas City School of Law - Pre-Law Undergraduate Scholars Program (PLUS) - <http://law.umkc.edu/prospective-students/discoverplus.asp> - Expected deadline: December 1, 2012

- University of Texas at San Antonio (UTSA) Institute for Law and Public Affairs Law School Preparation Academy -
<http://utsa.edu/today/2011/03/summerlawacad.html> - expected early deadline - March 2013 - expected late deadline - April 1, 2013

Pre-Law Pipeline Programs for CUNY undergraduates and recent graduates including CUNY BMI students who have been accepted to law school:

- Council on Legal Education Opportunity (CLEO) - The CLEO program is a six-week pre-law summer program sponsored by the American Bar Association Fund for Justice and Education. CLEO is dedicated to diversifying the legal profession by offering legal education opportunities to under-represented groups. The six-week program has an emphasis on legal thinking and analysis and mimics the vigor of first-year law school. For more information about the CLEO program, please visit: <http://www.cleoscholars.com>
- Indiana CLEO - Indiana CLEO takes approximately thirty (30) college graduates (underrepresented, low-income, or educationally disadvantaged) who have applied to any of the state's four law schools (Indiana University Maurer School of Law-Bloomington, Indiana University McKinney School of Law-Indianapolis, University of Notre Dame School of Law, and Valparaiso University School of Law) and exposes them to a six-week Summer Institute immediately before they begin law school. Successful completion of the Summer Institute qualifies students for an annual stipend. For more information, please visit: <http://www.in.gov/judiciary/cleo>.
- New York Legal Education Opportunity Summer Program (NY LEO) for college graduates who plan to attend a law school in New York State. For more information about NY LEO, please visit: <http://www.nycourts.gov/attorneys/leo>
- NYC Bar Law School Preparation Program - The Association of the Bar of the City of New York Office for Diversity Pipeline Initiatives and Practicing Attorneys for Law Students Program, Inc. (PALS) announced its Inaugural Law Preview Scholarship Program in 2012 - Rising 1L scholarship recipients will participate in a 6-day Law Preview law school prep course, where they will receive more than 45 hours of instruction from top law professors and attorneys who provide comprehensive previews of the following core first-year classes: Civil Procedure, Constitutional Law, Contracts, Criminal Law, Property, Torts and Legal Research & Writing. Additionally, students will attend workshops that teach test-taking strategies, case briefing, time-management, outlining, note-taking and studying, as well as programs on legal careers and extracurricular programs. It is expected that this program will continue in 2013. For more information, please visit: www.lawpreview.com/nycbar-pals - Expected deadline: July 2013

Pre-Dentistry, Pre-Medical, and Pre-Health Career Pipeline Programs for CUNY undergraduates, particularly freshmen, sophomores and juniors:

- Association of American Medical Colleges (AAMC) – AAMC maintains a comprehensive list of Summer Undergraduate Research Programs sponsored by its members. All CUNY BMI students interested in medicine, the health professions and scientific research should be aware of this list which is located at: https://www.aamc.org/members/great/61052/great_summerlinks.html
- AAMC also sponsors the Summer Medical and Dental Education Program (SMDEP) which is a free (full tuition, housing, and meals) six-week summer academic enrichment program that offers freshmen and sophomore college students intensive and personalized medical and dental school preparation. For more information, please visit: <http://www.smdep.org> – Expected deadline: April 2013
- Albert Einstein College of Medicine Summer Undergraduate Research Program - <http://www.einstein.yu.edu/education/phd/surp-program> - Expected deadline: February 2013
- University of Connecticut Health Center/School of Medicine – Department of Health Career Opportunity Programs - Aetna Health Professions Partnership Initiative Medical/Dental Preparatory Program
http://medicine.uhc.edu/prospective/hcop/meddent_prep.html - Expected deadline: February 2013
- Chicago Academic Medicine Program (CAMP) – University of Chicago Pritzker School of Medicine - CAMP is a 6-week tuition-free, non-residential summer program for undergraduate students who have completed the freshmen or sophomore year in college, or who are graduating from high school and have been accepted into college. The Pritzker School of Medicine Office of Multicultural Affairs developed CAMP to help undergraduates build the knowledge base and academic skills necessary for success in a premedical program. <http://pritzker.uchicago.edu/about/diversity/pipeline/camp.shtml> - Expected deadline: March 2013
- Manhattan Staten Island Area Health Education Center (MSI-AHEC) - <http://www.msiahec.org> and <http://www.msiahec.org/programs.html>
 - Collegiate Health Service Corps (CHSC)
Expected application deadline: Early September 2012
 - The Northeast Regional Alliance (NERA) MedPrep Program - NERA is a partnership between New Jersey Medical School, Mount Sinai School of Medicine Center for Multicultural and Community Affairs, Columbia University College of Physicians and Surgeons and the Manhattan Staten Island Area Health Education Center. The Program uniquely builds on the collective expertise of four outstanding institutions to expand health careers preparation for minority and disadvantaged students from junior high school through medical school with the goal of increasing competitiveness for medical school. Ultimately, we expect that our scholars will have the humanism, professionalism and interpersonal skills required of a future physician caring for a diverse population. Expected application deadline: Check MSI-AHEC website in early spring 2013

- Summer Health Internship Program (SHIP) -
SHIP provides a six week summer placement opportunity for junior/senior high school, and freshmen/sophomore college students who have expressed an interest in the health field. Students are exposed to a variety of careers in the health fields as well as to health issues affecting their communities. SHIP students are encouraged to observe health professionals and inquire whenever possible about their career paths, education paths, job descriptions, and responsibilities. Students are placed three days per week for five hours a day, with mandatory didactic sessions once per week. These sessions encompass a full day and include lectures, field trips, and other health related activities. Expected application deadline: Check MSI-AHEC website in early spring 2013
- Bronx-Westchester and Manhattan-Staten Island Area Health Education Centers - 2012 Health Careers Internship Program for College Juniors, Seniors and Postbaccalaureate Students
Expected Application Deadline: April 2013
- “My Health Careers” website located at:
<http://www.msiahec.myhealthcareer.org>

- Medical College of Georgia, Georgia Health Sciences University – Student Educational Enrichment Program (SEEP), Office of Diversity Affairs -
<http://georgiahealth.edu/careers/specop/SEEP.html> - The Student Educational Enrichment Program (SEEP) is a seven week, academic enrichment program for Pre-College and College students. SEEP is geared toward students interested in the health professions who are underrepresented in the health professions and/or socially, educationally, or economically disadvantaged. The objectives of Student Educational Enrichment Programs are to enrich students' knowledge of biomedical sciences, to familiarize students with educational opportunities at MCG, to help students identify their specific career goals, and to enhance students' competitiveness for admission to health professions schools. Expected deadline: March 2013
- University of Chicago Pritzker School of Medicine Experience in Research Program (PSOMER) -
<http://pritzker.uchicago.edu/about/diversity/pipeline/psomer.shtml> - PSOMER is an 8-week research, education, and mentoring experience with

University of Chicago faculty. PSOMER is open to college students who are rising juniors and seniors.

Expected deadline: February 2013

- Sloan-Kettering Summer Reach Program -
<http://www.sloankettering.edu/summer-undergraduate-research-program> - The Louis V. Gerstner, Jr. Graduate School of Biomedical Sciences, Memorial Sloan-Kettering Cancer Center, sponsors a ten-week research program for outstanding undergraduate students who are interested in pursuing a career in the biomedical sciences.
Expected application deadline: February 2013
- UCLA David Geffen School of Medicine, Office of Diversity, Inclusion and Outreach - Pre-Medical/Pre-Dental Enrichment Program (PREP) -
<http://www.medstudent.ucla.edu/offices/aeo/prep.cfm> - UCLA PREP is a seven-week program designed to provide pre-medical and pre-dental students from disadvantaged backgrounds with a means of strengthening their ability and readiness to study medicine or dentistry. As a result of full participation in UCLA PREP, participants should have enhanced their chances of being accepted to medical or dental school and succeeding once there.
Expected application deadline: January 2013
- University of Kansas Medical Center (UKMC) Pre-Admissions Program, Office of Cultural Enhancement and Diversity -
<http://www2.kumc.edu/oced/pap.html> - The UKMC Pre-Admissions Program is an eight-week summer program designed for college junior and senior students preparing to take the MCAT and apply to medical school.
Expected application deadline: March 31, 2013
- University of Michigan School of Dentistry - Profiles for Success (PFS) -
<http://www.dent.umich.edu/mca/profileforsuccess> - PFS is a six week residential program held from mid May through the end of June for college juniors, seniors, and recent college graduates. The purpose of this program is to prepare students from disadvantaged and underrepresented backgrounds to be successful applicants for dental and medical school. The program is free to all participants.
Expected application deadline: early February 2013
- University of Medicine and Dentistry of New Jersey (UMDNJ), New Jersey Dental School - Gateway to Dentistry Program -
<http://dentalschool.umdj.edu/gateway.htm#dates> - A two week program designed to expose students to the practice of dentistry and dental school Program Dates: January 2, 2013 - January 11, 2013 - Application deadline - October 5, 2013; May 28, 2013 - June 7, 2013 - Application deadline: February 25, 2013); and May 2013 - June 2013 - Expected application deadline - March 2013
- The University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill School of Medicine, Office of Special Programs - UNC MED Program -

<http://www.med.unc.edu/medprogram> – The MED program is a free summer academic preparatory program for students from populations that are severely underrepresented in medicine and dentistry with an intensive curriculum that mimics the first year of medical and dental school. Since 1974, 88% of the 2,980 students who have attended the UNC MED program decided to apply to health professions schools. 90% gained admission, with 80% matriculating into medical or dental school, and the remainder entering other health professions schools. Expected application deadline: February 2013

- Weill Cornell Graduate School of Medical Sciences, Cornell University, a unique partnership between Sloan-Kettering Institute and Weill Cornell Medical College – Access Summer Research Program –

<http://www.weill.cornell.edu/gradschool/summer> – The Access Programs of Weill Cornell Graduate School of Medical Sciences (WCGS) is a summer internship program that trains underserved college students in the biomedical sciences. Interns gain hands-on experiences in a biomedical research laboratory and are encouraged to apply to PHD programs. Selected students are placed in laboratories at the Weill Cornell Medical College under the mentorship of experienced faculty members.

Expected application deadline: February 1, 2013

- Weill Cornell Medical College – Travelers Summer Research Fellowship Program – http://www.weill.cornell.edu/education/programs/tra_sumres.html

– The Travelers Summer Research Program is designed to give 25 premedical students deeper insights into the field of medicine, including issues that greatly affect the health of traditionally underserved groups.

Expected application deadline: February 1, 2013

- Weill Cornell/Rockefeller/Sloan-Kettering, Tri-Institutional MD-PHD Program in New York City – Gateways to Laboratory Summer Program – Enhancing Diversity of Physician-Scientists –

<http://www.med.cornell.edu/mdphd/summerprogram> – In 1993, the Weill Cornell/Rockefeller/Sloan-Kettering, Tri-Institutional MD-PHD Program in New York City became the first MD/PhD program in the country to establish a summer program for underrepresented colleges undergraduates who want to pursue the combined MD/PHD degree. The Gateway to the Laboratory Summer Program has been highlighted by the National Institute of Health as one of the top ten summer programs for underrepresented and disadvantaged students.

Expected application deadline: Check website in December 2012

Public Health and Science Research Programs for Undergraduates

- Harvard School of Public Health Program in Quantitative Sciences –

<http://www.hsph.harvard.edu/biostats/diversity/summer>

Expected application deadline: February 2013

- Leadership Alliance - The Leadership Alliance Summer Research Early Identification Program (SR-EIP) -
<http://www.theleadershipalliance.org/Programs/SummerResearch/ProgramStructure/tabid/242/Default.aspx>
 The Leadership Alliance offers undergraduates, interested in pursuing a PhD or MD-PhD, the opportunity to work for eight to ten weeks under the guidance of a faculty or research mentor at a participating Alliance institution.
 Expected deadline: February 2013
- Research in Science and Engineering (RiSE) at Rutgers University -
<http://rise.rutgers.edu> -
 RiSE is an undergraduate summer research program to advance diversity in science, math, and engineering. RiSE is jointly sponsored by two of the nation's leading public research institutions – Rutgers, the State University of New Jersey and the University of Medicine & Dentistry of New Jersey (UMDNJ)–Robert Wood Johnson Medical School. Undergraduates from across the U.S. and its territories are chosen to participate in 10 weeks of cutting-edge research in the sciences (biological, physical, and social), math, engineering, and exciting interdisciplinary areas.
 Expected application deadline: Check program website in spring 2012
- Rockefeller University Summer Undergraduate Research Fellowship Program -
<http://www.rockefeller.edu/surf> - The Rockefeller University Summer Undergraduate Research Fellowship (SURF) program provides a unique opportunity for undergraduates to conduct laboratory research. SURF students work with leading scientists in a broad range of areas including biochemistry; structural biology and chemistry; molecular, cell and developmental biology; immunology; virology and microbiology; neuroscience; physics; and mathematical biology. College sophomores and juniors are eligible to spend 10 weeks during the summer in a Rockefeller University laboratory. The program begins in early June and ends in mid-August.
 Expected application deadline: February 2012
- The University of Michigan School of Public Health Future Public Health Leaders Program (FPHLP) -
<http://sitemaker.umich.edu/um-fphlp/home>
 FPHLP is a 10-week summer program at the University of Michigan School of Public Health (UM-SPH) whose goal is to increase the diversity of the public health workforce. Participants receive leadership training, orientation to the public health disciplines, and real world work experience. The program is designed to foster knowledge of, excitement about, and commitment to the elimination of health inequalities.
 Expected application deadline: Early February 2013
- University of Michigan School of Public Health Summer Enrichment Program (SEP) in Health Management and Policy -
<http://www.sph.umich.edu/sep>

The overall goal of the program is to help undergraduate students identify health care administration as a sound career choice by familiarizing them with the field through a structured summer work experience in a health care setting.

Expected application deadline: February 2013

- University of Pittsburgh Summer Undergraduate Research Fellowship Program, Center for Neuroscience -
<http://cnu neurobio.pitt.edu/training/summer> - Each summer, the Center for Neuroscience at the University of Pittsburgh (CNUP) sponsors a 10-week program in which selected undergraduate students conduct independent research under the guidance of individual CNUP training faculty. The 2012 CNUP Summer Undergraduate Research Program will begin on Tuesday, May 29. Student recipients of this competitive fellowship will receive a stipend of $3,500 and will be provided housing at no cost in a double-occupancy, on-campus dormitory, and a monthly pass to ride Port Authority buses for June and July. Students will be responsible for their own meals and other expenses, including travel to and from Pittsburgh.
Expected application deadline: February 2013
- Yale University School of Medicine, Office of Multicultural Affairs, Yale BioSTEP Research for Undergraduates -
<http://medicine.yale.edu/education/omca/summer/biostep/index.aspx> - Yale BioSTEP (Biomedical Science Training and Enrichment Program) provides intensive, short-term summer research training for undergraduates, especially students from groups underrepresented in biomedical sciences at research-intensive universities. The aim of BioSTEP is to guide and support students who have a strong interest in pursuing careers in biomedical research as future Ph.D. or M.D./Ph.D. doctoral candidates. Student already engaged in school year research supported by National Institutes of Health (NIH) undergraduate research training programs (MARC, MBRS, RISE, ISMD and others) are encouraged to apply.
Expected application deadline: February 1, 2013

Access to Graduate School Programs/Programs dedicated to preparing undergraduate students for Graduate School and the Graduate School application process

- CUNY Graduate Center, Office of Educational Opportunity and Diversity Programs - CUNY Pipeline Program -
<http://www.gc.cuny.edu/About-the-GC/Resource-Services/Equal-Opportunity-Diversity-Program>
The CUNY Pipeline Program is designed to provide educational and financial support to CUNY undergraduates from groups currently underrepresented in our nation's universities who are interested in pursuing the Ph.D. in preparation for college-level teaching and advanced research. The Program accepts students in any discipline except law and medicine.
Expected application deadline: March 2013

- Rutgers University, School of Arts and Sciences, Department of English - Rutgers English Diversity Institute - <http://redi.rutgers.edu> - The Rutgers English Diversity Institute (REDI) is a week-long program at the flagship New Brunswick campus of Rutgers, The State University of New Jersey. REDI is designed to encourage current students and recent graduates from diverse cultural, economic, and ethnic backgrounds to consider graduate study in Literatures in English.
Expected application deadline: Check website regularly
- Schomburg-Mellon Humanities Summer Institute - <http://www.nypl.org/locations/tid/64/node/29386> - The Schomburg Center for Research in Black Culture and the Andrew W. Mellon Foundation have created the Schomburg-Mellon Humanities Summer Institute to encourage minority students and others with an interest in African-American and African Diasporan Studies to pursue graduate degrees in the humanities. The program, which is open to U.S. citizens and permanent residents, offers a six-week session for ten rising seniors (juniors in spring 2012, entering their senior year in fall 2012, graduating in 2013). Five will be selected from colleges and universities in New York, New Jersey, and Connecticut and five from Historically Black Colleges and Universities across the nation. The Institute, with the help of renowned scholars, will develop and nurture the students' interest in the appropriate disciplines, and provide them with the requisite intellectual challenges and orientations needed to pursue humanities careers and to reach their full potential.
Expected application deadline: March 5, 2013
- UCLA Graduate Division Summer Program for Undergraduate Research - <http://www.gdnet.ucla.edu/asis/srp/gdspur.htm#Purpose> - UCLA's Graduate Division Summer Program for Undergraduate Research offers undergraduate juniors with outstanding academic potential the opportunity to work closely with faculty mentors on research projects. The eight-week program is designed for students who plan to pursue the PhD degree and enter academic careers. Opportunities are available in the arts, humanities, social sciences, and professional schools (except dentistry, law and medicine). Continuation of this program in Summer 2012 is contingent upon funding availability.
Expected application deadline: Early February 2013

Leadership and Public Policy Preparation Programs

- American Political Science Association - APSA Ralph Bunche Summer Institute - http://www.apsanet.org/content_6602.cfm - Named in honor of the 1950 Nobel Peace Prize winner and former APSA President, Ralph J. Bunche, the Ralph Bunche Summer Institute (RBSI) program goal is to encourage students to pursue academic careers in political science.
Expected application deadline: January 2013

- Congressional Black Caucus Foundation Congressional Internship Program - <http://www.cbcfinc.org/internships/summer-internship-program.html> - Expected application deadline: March 2013
- Congressional Hispanic Caucus Institute Congressional Internship Program - <http://www.chci.org/internships> - Expected application deadline: Check website regularly
- Federal Reserve Bank of New York Summer Research Internship Program - http://www.newyorkfed.org/research/past_grad_summer_interns.html - Expected application deadline: January 2013
- Institute for Responsible Citizenship – Washington Program and Youth Scholar Academy- <http://www.i4rc.org/programs.htm> - Expected application deadlines: February 2013
- New York Needs You (NYNY) Fellowship Program - <http://www.newyorkneedsyou.org> - Two year student development fellowship program for first generation college students. Expected application deadline: Early March 2013
- Public Policy International Affairs Fellowship Program and Junior Institutes - <http://www.ppiaprogram.org> - The PPIA Fellowship Program is designed to prepare college juniors or rising seniors from diverse backgrounds for graduate studies in public and/or international affairs and groom them for professional roles in public service. There is an array of opportunities under the Fellowship which span a period of development from the junior year of college to beyond the completion of a graduate degree. The PPIA Junior Summer Institutes (JSI) have been the hallmark of the PPIA Fellowship Program for over 30 years. JSI is an intensive seven-week summer program that focuses on preparing students for graduate programs in public and international affairs and careers as policy professionals, public administrators and other leadership roles in public service. The JSI curriculum includes economics, statistics, domestic/international policy issues and leadership topics, all designed to sharpen the students' quantitative, analytic and communication skills. Extracurricular activities are also included. These skills are vital for admission into the top graduate programs in public and international affairs. The successful completion of a summer institute is a requirement for PPIA Fellows. Expected application deadlines: November 1, 2012
- Urban Institute Summer Academy - The Urban Institute Academy for Public Policy Analysis and Research is a unique and challenging program of skills-building, career development, and mentoring for undergraduates from underrepresented populations interested in careers in public policy research. The year-long fellowship begins with an intensive nine-week summer program. The summer portion of the program gives students between their junior and senior year of college the skills and exposure crucial to obtaining highly competitive entry positions in the field. After students successfully complete the summer program, program administrators follow up with continued mentoring, a research conference presentation, job and graduate school counseling, and research paper publication during their final year of college. Expected application deadline: February 2013

- Cornell University, College of Engineering Louis Stokes Alliance for Minority Participation - Undergraduate Summer Research Program -

<http://www.engineering.cornell.edu/diversity/summer/lsamp.cfm> -

CU LSAMP-R is a summer research opportunity that provides undergraduate participants with the opportunity to work with distinguished faculty and staff as well as network with others in their field of interest through weekly luncheons. Undergraduate students, interested in gaining a deeper understanding in an engineering-related field, have the opportunity to conduct and present research over a ten-week duration under the auspices of a Cornell Engineering faculty research mentor. Through this one-on-one partnership, participants will gain theoretical knowledge and practical training in academic research and scientific experimentation. CU LSAMP-R was developed to aid in the retention of traditionally underrepresented groups in STEM.

Expected application deadline:

- T. Howard Foundation - Diversity in Media - Promoting Diversity in Multimedia and Entertainment Industry -

<http://www.t-howard.org/internship-program-overview-0> -

T. Howard Summer Internship Program - The T. Howard Foundation Internship Program provides underrepresented students with internship opportunities in the multimedia and entertainment industry. T. Howard Foundation's partners include some of the largest media companies in the world. Our students are placed with companies from New York to Los Angeles, Washington, DC to Atlanta and many places in between. Our host company partners are committed to diversity and providing valuable industry experiences to T. Howard Foundation interns.

Expected deadline: October 2012 and December 2012 - Applicants are encouraged to apply early

Pre-Business School/Pre-MBA Programs/Economics

- American Economic Association Summer Training Program -

<http://www.aeaweb.org/committees/CSMGEP/pipeline/index.php> -

In 1974, the American Economic Association (AEA) established the AEA Summer Training Program to prepare talented undergraduates for doctoral programs in economics and related disciplines, by offering a unique opportunity for students to gain technical skills in economics and conduct research with prominent faculty.

Expected application deadline: Check website early in 2012-2013 academic year

- Harvard Business School (HBS) Summer Venture in Management Program -

<http://www.hbs.edu/svmp/about-the-program> - HBS SVMP is a one week management training program for rising college seniors designed to increase diversity and opportunity in business education.

Expected application deadline: Early fall 2013 semester but check website regularly

- Yale School of Management Pre-MBA Leadership Summer Program -
<http://premba.som.yale.edu> - Expected application deadline: Early March 2013

Teacher Preparation Programs

- Call Me Mister -
<http://www.clemson.edu/hehd/departments/education/research/callmemister/colleges/index.html> - Although Call Me Mister supports mostly undergraduates, the program also provides support for graduate students interested in earning a Master of Arts in Teaching from one of the participating institutions in South Carolina or Mississippi
- Teach for America - <http://www.teachforamerica.org> - Expected application deadline - Check website for regular updates
- Woodrow Wilson Teaching Fellowship (for City College/CUNY students)
<http://www.wwteachingfellowship.org>