Special Note on Federal Work-Study

- Accept awards you want, and decline awards you don’t want

- Click on the Aid Year next to College of Staten Island for the Financial Aid Year (under Aid Year Description) that you are interested in viewing your awards for

- In Select Aid Year to View
  - You may see aid for more than one academic year
  - You may see aid for more than one school

- Click on the Aid Year next to College of Staten Island for the Financial Aid Year (under Aid Year Description) that you are interested in viewing your awards for

- If you have a Federal Work-Study (FWS) award, you must accept or decline it. You have to work to earn the award.

- CUNY presumes you have accepted any other award offered to you.

- Review your entire awards package.
  - Awards other than FWS (PELL, TAP etc.) are presumed accepted and require no further action. If you wish to decline any of them, see the Financial Aid Office.
Click on any of the award hyperlinks for more detailed information about the program and its requirements. Below is an example of the Federal Work Study detail screen.

- Check the box under “Accept,” if you want the award.
- Check the box under “Decline,” if you do not want the award.
- If you do nothing, you will lose the FWS award.

After you review your aid package and, if applicable, Accept or Decline your FWS award, click SUBMIT.

Financial Aid Year 2016-2017

Award: Federal Work Study Fall
Category: Work/Study

Disbursement Date | Description | Award Amount
--- | --- | ---
08/15/2016 | 2016 Fall Term | 2,000.00

Currency used is US Dollar.

Message
- You must be registered for at least six credit hours.
- You must find an eligible part-time job (job listings are available in the financial aid office).
- You must complete all required FWS forms.
- You must be in good academic standing in your college with a 2.0 GPA (C Average) or higher after two years of enrollment.