

Financial Requirements for I-20 (or) DS-2019 English Language Institute

The following are requirements in order for an I-20 or DS-2019 to be issued:

- $100 (USD) non-refundable application fee
- $100 (USD) non-refundable document processing fee (initial document)
- $ 50 (USD) non-refundable document processing fee per dependent (initial document)
- A fully completed and signed application form
- Copy of your passport including name, date and date of birth
- Checks made payable to the College of Staten Island
- For expedited mailing via Fed-Ex, add an additional $100 (USD)

FALL/ SPRING SEMESTER	US$ 13,016
(Subtract US$ 5,666 if room and board are provided)	US$ 7,350

ONE YEAR OF ENGLISH LANGUAGE INSTRUCTION	US$ 30,690
(Subtract US$ 14,165 if room and board are provided)	US$ 16,525

SUMMER I / SUMMER II SEMESTER	US$ 5,269
(Subtract US$ 2,126 if room and board are provided)	US$ 3,143

- Statement of Financial Support completed and signed by student's financial and local sponsor, where applicable.
- Room and Board completed and signed by student's local provider, where applicable.

Financial Statement must certify student's education will be paid for by the financial sponsor. If free room and board are provided by local sponsor, sponsor must certify room and board expenses will be paid.

For Degree Study at the College of Staten Island/CUNY

Students wishing to pursue a degree at the College of Staten Island/CUNY after completion of the English Language Institute program, should also submit the following

- Official Diploma/Certificate of Graduation and School Transcripts from each secondary/high school in a sealed envelope
- Official University Transcripts in sealed envelopes (sent directly from the student's University to CSI Admissions)
- On ELI application, write major/field of college study
- Funds available to show for:
 - * Undergraduate degree: $ 42,790 USD
 - * Graduate degree: $43,300 USD

For both undergraduate and graduate degree programs, subtract $17,000 from the above costs if room and board will be provided by a local sponsor.