FACULTY VACANCY ANNOUNCEMENT

The School of Health Sciences, Department of Nursing, at the College of Staten Island (CSI), currently seeks candidates for the position of chairperson in Nursing. The position is anticipated to begin in January 2022. The Department offers AAS, RN to BS, MS (CNS, NP, and Certificates), and DNP degree programs. The CSI Nursing chairperson position presents an exceptional opportunity for the successful candidate to participate in the continued intellectual and institutional growth and development of the long-standing Nursing Department within the City University of New York.

CSI is a senior CUNY College organized around two academic divisions and three schools, with over 10,000 students. CSI offers a broad range of academic programs in the liberal arts and sciences, and in several professional areas. The College awards associate's, bachelor's, master's, and clinical doctoral degrees, and in collaboration with the CUNY Graduate Center, numerous Ph.D. degrees. CSI's internationally recognized faculty passionately engage in scholarly and artistic activities, and together with a strong professional staff, lead students through transformational learning experiences both inside and outside of the classroom. The College is situated on a 204-acre site, has recently incorporated a residential component, and is currently engaging in capital expansion. It is a hub of intellectual and artistic activity and a community partner and source of economic impact and job creation for the greater Staten Island area.

The College's faculty, administration, and staff are committed to educational excellence as they instill in students an enduring love of learning and respect for pluralism and diversity. The College community recognizes its responsibility to strive for the common good, including an informed appreciation for the interdependence of all people, as well as providing students with the opportunities for successful future careers.

QUALIFICATIONS
