CSI Self-Study Updates

If you would like to learn more about Middle States Accreditation at CSI, please visit the following site: www.csi.cuny.edu/middle-states. You can also read the CSI Self-Study Updates.

What has been done since the last CSI Self-Study Update?

- A draft of the Self-Study was shared with the College community for their review and feedback. To access the Self-Study draft please click here: http://bit.ly/CSISelf-StudyDraft. You will need to log-in with your CUNYfirst username and password. To provide feedback, please send an email to CSISelf-Study@csi.cuny.edu.

- The Steering Committee conducted two Town Halls to discuss the progress made on the Self-Study and gather feedback from the College community.

- The Verification of Compliance Working Group began working on identifying evidence to support CSI's compliance with eight federal regulations. To learn more about the Verification of Compliance click here.

How can I get involved?

There are multiple ways you can participate in the Self-Study process.
- Become familiar with the Middle States Standards, the Self-Study Institutional Priorities of CSI, and the Self-Study Intended Outcomes for CSI.
- Assist with the collection of evidence to document how the College is in compliance with the Middle States Standards.
- Participate as a member of a Working Group.
- Provide feedback on drafts submitted to the College community.
- Attend Self-Study events.

If you would like to provide comments or more actively participate in the Self-Study, please contact the Steering Committee at CSISelf-Study@csi.cuny.edu.
